

Control: Soapy water works the same way as with aphids but may be less effective since whiteflies can fly away and return when the treatment is complete. Spray every three to five days since the young develop rapidly. Since whiteflies are attracted to yellow, many people hang yellow boards covered with a sticky substance, such as 90 weight oil, to trap them.

Table 9

[illegible]